

User agreement for Turkish Emotional Speech database (TurES)

This user agreement applies to the Turkish Emotional Speech Database (the “TurES database”). We are currently releasing only the meta-data (emotion annotations and transcriptions), the raw acoustic data (F0, mfcc, formant) and feature files extracted using openSMILE tool.

Conditions of release

The TurES database is provided without guarantee. No legal claims of any kind can be derived from accepting and using the TurES database. The database providers are not liable for any damage resulting from receiving, installing or using the TurES database or other files provided in this context. Licensee agrees not to pass the TurES database or derivatives thereof on to others without permission of the providers. Any models derived using data from the TurES database may only be used for scientific, non-commercial applications.

For publications concerning direct or indirect use of the database, the licensee should cite
